SCHEDULE OF FUNERAL SERVICE FEES

This funeral price list has been prepared to assist you in the arranging of a funeral service that meets your personal needs. Some of these items indicate specific services that reflect our ability to serve you in a professional manner, 24 hours a day, in accordance with traditional Halacha. Please do not hesitate to ask our professional directors to explain the following charges, should you have any questions.

The Toronto Jewish Community proudly takes its place amongst the Jewish Communities of the world as one of great achievement and prominence.

This same community has, for over 89 years, entrusted Steeles Memorial Chapel with one of its most sacred and important tasks, serving you in accordance with traditional Halacha in a professional manner, 24 hours a day.

We accept your trust with a measure of humility and a great sense of responsibility.

Our mission statement to you is to pledge to serve you professionally and compassionately.

May G-d bless you now and always with strength and comfort.

Effective Date: June 11, 2020

Person In Charge of the Day to Day Operations:

Carol P. Saucier

Manager

Payment

Payment is due within 30 days from the date of the contract. Payment can be made by cash, check, debit, and most major credit cards. A rate of 2.0% per month (24% per annum) is applied to any outstanding balances after the initial 30 days from the date of the contract.

If you are pre-paying for services or supplies, pre-authorized chequing is available.

Funding

When prepaying for services and supplies, we offer two funding options. When prepaying, you pay for the services and supplies today and the money will be used to pay for the services and supplies at time of death.

Trust: Where the money is paid into an interest-bearing trust account and upon the death of the individual, is used to deliver the services and supplies, unless the contract was cancelled.

Insurance: Where the money is paid into an insurance contract and upon the death of the individual, is used to deliver the services and supplies, unless the contract was cancelled.
